From qualifying in 1980, Iain has specialised in Commercial Litigation and Dispute Resolution. His clients have ranged from Manufacturing Companies and Retailers to Universities and Professional Firms. His expertise includes handling contract disputes, product liability and breach of warranty claims, and shareholder and partnership disputes. He lectures regularly on a variety of professional topics. As an advocate he has appeared before a wide variety of tribunals, handling both civil and criminal proceedings.

In addition to representing his own clients at mediations, Iain is a qualified mediator accredited by AdR Group. He has a growing practice as a mediator. A founder member of the Chester, and Manchester, County Court Mediation Panels, he is also a member of the Association of Northern Mediators.

Disputes he has successfully mediated include:-

- Family Company: Commercial dispute between family members ostensibly over contract arrangements, but with much personal bitterness.
- Professional practice and former client: dispute over fees in which allegations of mis-charging and poor service were raised.
- Property / nuisance dispute between absentee landlord and occupier of adjoining premises.
- Defamation dispute between trustees of a recreational organisation.
