A Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Member of the Institute's Tax Faculty and a Member of the Academy of Experts and a Qualified Dispute Resolver, Jonathan Grant is managing partner of Grants, the Leeds based firm of chartered accountants.

In 1971 he graduated from the University of Bradford Business School with a degree in business administration, majoring in accountancy.

He then joined Price Waterhouse in Leeds and after qualification in 1974 moved to Arthur Andersen in Leeds, specialising in taxation.

In 1977 he joined the family firm, established by Julian Grant in 1946, and went on to develop, inter alia, its forensic accounting and litigation support services.

He has particular expertise in the complex financial aspects of cases relating to commercial litigation, personal injury, matrimonial proceedings, litigation, fraud and as a court expert witness.

In 1996 he qualified as a mediator in alternative dispute resolution with the Academy of Experts. Since qualifying he has undertaken a variety of mediations mainly relating to corporate disputes.

Jonathan Grant also has wide experience in corporate finance, tax planning and services for medium-sized businesses and has served as director of several local companies
