Relevant experience

Kevin Grice practises as a barrister particularly in the fields of personal injury and clinical and other professional negligence. He acts both for Claimants and Defendants over a wide geographical area, being instructed in claims to an individual value exceeding £3 million as well as at lower levels. His work involves both court advocacy and advice in writing and in conference as well as the drafting of court documents. He has been particularly involved in recent years in meeting with expert witnesses, drafting complex Schedules of Loss, chairing and participating in round table conferences and negotiating settlements in higher value claims.

Kevin Grice sits as a part-time judge in both Crown Courts and County Courts in the North West of England hearing criminal and civil cases and has wide experience in adjudicating upon disputes in diverse areas of law as well as presiding over jury trials. He also chairs Legal Services Commission Review Panels in Liverpool, Chester and Shrewsbury, being the Vice-Chair in respect of the Clinical Negligence Panel in Liverpool.

Kevin Grice lectures and presents conferences and seminars to professional bodies including firms of solicitors and local Law Societies throughout the North West of England and beyond, particularly on personal injury law and practice, calculations of loss and damage and civil procedure.
