General Information

Paul is a Solicitor (1980) an accredited Mediator (2002) and a Chartered Arbitrator (2006). He was appointed a Deputy District Judge in 1997.

As a Solicitor Paul's main areas of practice are

- Inheritance Act and Contentious Probate
- Professional Negligence Claims
- Commercial Litigation

He is a Registered Contentious Trust and Probate Specialist (ACTAPS) and a Member of the Property Litigation Association.

As an active Mediator Paul undertakes around three mediations a month on average. His feedback includes:

Feedback

- Paul outlined the process extremely clearly to the clients and using Paul's methods the parties were able to reach an agreement that before the mediation had seemed highly unlikely. I and my clients were very impressed with Paul and grateful for his assistance.
- He was client sympathetic but authoritative and persuasive. As a result a satisfactory solution was reached despite a rather recalcitrant client.
- Excellent mediator. Always well prepared and uses the time efficiently and productively.
- Paul identified the key issues quickly. He was realistic about what could be achieved and although the case did not settle progress was made with some important issues.

Experience

Paul has now completed more than 125 mediations covering subjects such as:

- Wills trusts probate and Inheritance Act claims
- Trusts of land, constructive trusts and cohabitee disputes
